

BOOK IV

1. New Parasitology Laboratory remodelled by adding to the south half again as much floor space as ^{was} in the Second Main Laboratory. Building completed in 1948. (Photo about 1960)
2. Dr. Edwin R. Goode, Interim Chief or Acting Chief, between Dr. Schwartz's retirement in 1959 and Dr. Foster's appointment as Chief in 1960.
3. Dr. Aurel Oliver Foster, Chief, Animal Parasitology Institute (Beltsville, Parasitological Laboratory) from 1960 to 1971, when he retired from government service.

ANIMAL PARASITOLOGY INSTITUTE PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM INDEX -

Page No.

Volume Four

1. Enlarged Main Laboratory from the northeast. New addition was on the south end consisted of an equivalent space to that indicated by the two large windows on the east side nearest the camera and the 5 smaller windows down to the doorway. Work was completed in 1948. The new section housed the Index Catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology, the Parasite Collection, and provided additional laboratory and storage space. Photo made by De. J. C. Hwang. (1960)
2. Dr. Edward R. Goode, Acting Director of the Beltsville Parasitological Laboratory, 1959-1960 during period between Dr. Schwartz's retirement and Dr. Foster's appointment as Director of the Laboratory, now the Animal Parasitology Institute.
3. Dr. Aurel O. Foster, Director of the Beltsville Parasitological Laboratory from 1960 until his retirement in 1971. ?